Character Counts

FAIRNESS

This month I have the great pleasure of giving tours to new families and students. It is a time of celebration, sharing our school programs and the work of our students. I am most proud when our students step in and share about our school. Our students are able to describe our programs as well as the WHY behind what we are doing. Two great examples in the past week include fourth graders describing Genius Hour Interventions and a second grader describing our music programs. I am personally proud to be a part of our school.

Mid-Winter Break: The school offices will be closed next week (February 19-23) for our Mid-Winter Break. Enjoy your time together as a family, and we hope that you travel safely wherever you may go.

Night Under the Stars: Thank you to all who joined us for Night Under the Stars. Chuck McPartlin and friends have such an amazing passion for astronomy, and we're so lucky to have them share with us each year. Chuck will be coming back to campus later in the month to give class presentations.

Auction Committee: Tickets are now on sale for the Auction on Saturday, April 28: HAVANNA NIGHTS! Your help is needed at this time to solicit donations, help find sponsors, and purchase tickets for you and your friends.

Open Enrollment: February 1-28 is our annual Open Enrollment Period. If you know of a new/interested family, we ask that you share this information with them, as one of the biggest compliments you can give is a referral to a friend.

Yearbook Sales: Yearbook are now on sale (see the attached order form). All orders, advertisements, and 8th Grade parent dedications dues by Friday, March 16.

Elementary Conference Week: Elementary Conference week will be March 5-9. Please plan ahead for 12pm release during this week.

Carnival: The Carnival is Coming! The carnival is making a comeback on Friday, March 23. Student Council and PTSO are leading the way with this schoolwide event that will be free for students. The Talent Show (see attached info) will be at the Carnival this year! More information will follow soon.

GO DRAGONS!
